

- What's your "Costco moment"? Can you recall a time when possibility, not need, drove your behavior?
- How have you experienced the scarcity mindset in your life—financially, emotionally, or spiritually?
- Jesus says, "Where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." What does your bank statement say about what you treasure?
- The sermon suggested that "worry is a form of worship." What do you think you're worshipping when you're stuck in anxiety?
- Josh mentioned that "scarcity isn't about numbers—it's about narratives." What dominant narrative shapes your view of provision?
- When have you most doubted God's ability to provide? How did that season shape your relationship with Him?
- How does Jesus' teaching in Matthew 6 challenge our cultural obsession with accumulation?
- What does it practically look like to "seek first the kingdom of God" in the area of money or resources?
- Which area do you need to starve this week: over-saving, over-working, over-spending, or withholding generosity? What's one counter-action you could take?
- What would your life look like if you truly believed: "God has already given me what I need"?