

Discussion Questions

1. Are you naturally a prompt “do it right away” person, or a “there's plenty of time, I'll get to it eventually” person? Give some examples of how this plays out in your everyday life.
2. Read our short parable out loud together in Luke 13:23-30. When you hear the phrase or concept of the "narrow door" in scripture, what initial reactions or questions usually come up for you?
3. We looked at how God's faithful, constant presence can sometimes lull us into treating Him like He's on standby. Have you ever found yourself assuming you have all the time in the world to respond to God? How does that impact you?
4. Luke emphasizes the urgency of the door eventually closing to shake us out of procrastination or indecision. How do you feel about the door being closed at some point? What typically gets in the way of you feeling or acting with a genuine sense of spiritual urgency?
5. We highlighted three distinct types of "open doors":
 1. An opportunity requiring faith or action
 2. An invitation to a deeper "with Jesus" life
 3. The door of salvationWhich of these “doors” do you most recognize as open in front of you right now?
6. What has kept you from walking through that open door God has for you?
7. Jesus tells us to "make every effort" to enter. Since we know salvation and grace aren't earned by works, what does "making every effort" practically look like in terms of your responsiveness to God's open door?
8. How can your group pray for and support you in taking your next step?
